

PARTICIPANT GUIDE

ALL THAT REALLY MATTERS
BY NICOLE DEESE

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

PHILIPPIANS 2:3-4

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1

Q. Which character from 'All That Really Matters' did you relate to the most?

2

Q. During the D&D discussion evenings at The Bridge, each member is asked to contribute by answering one or more of the 'Three Questions'. Read the questions [below] to the group, and answer them.

3

Q. Influence is a theme in the novel. Why is it important to ensure we're influenced by the right people and positively influencing others?

4

Q. Molly initially signs up to volunteer at the Bridge for selfish reasons. How does her heart for the ministry and serving others change throughout the novel?

5

Q. Many people might consider Silas and Carlos' relationship beyond repair, but forgiveness and restoration were possible because of God. Do you believe that broken relationships can be truly healed? Why, why not?

6

Q. Molly's family do not agree with her lifestyle and choices. How can we love others well, even if we don't agree with their lifestyle or decision-making?

7

Q. Molly's relationship with her parents has left her feeling abandoned with an intense fear of rejection. Can you relate to her feelings? Discuss.

8

Q. Molly describes having saving faith in God as "faith... that requires me to take off my life jacket [in a deep ocean]". Can you relate to her experience? How do faithful Christians such as Miles and Silas help her overcome her fear and take a leap of faith?

9

Q. Proverbs 17:17 says, "A friend loves at all times". How does Molly grow in her capacity to be a good friend to others? What have you learnt about friendship since reading this book?

10

Q. Servanthood is powerfully modelled by those who volunteer and serve at The Bridge. How can you be more available to follow Christ's example and serve others?
