BOOK CLUB KIT

One of the most important jobs we have as women is to create community for each other. There is not much more powerful than women coming together to intentionally strengthen their relationship with Jesus and relationships with each other. I hope that this guide not only provides prompts for an engaging conversation, but also yummy snacks and a fun playlist so that you can enjoy your time together!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

INTRODUCTION

1. Have you read C. S. Lewis's The Screwtape Letters? If so, what struck you about it?

2. Have you ever read a book that prompted a journey of soul-searching? If so, what was the book, and what about it was so impactful for you?

3. Where would you say you are currently in your journey of faith?

4. What are some struggles you have recently faced or are currently facing in your life?

5. What, if anything, are you hoping to gain from your journey through this book?

LETTER 1 ENTANGLED

1. What was your first experience of the Internet/the World Wide Web? Was it something that came to be introduced into the world later in your life or has it been a part of your life from your childhood?

2. What level of noise would you say you take into your heart and mind on a daily basis? Do you have set boundaries about the level of "noise" and information you consume?

3. What changes have you noticed in the world and even in the people you love since the Internet has become such an integral part of living in the modern world?

4. What are some positive fruits that the World Wide Web has borne in your life? What are some negative results that have come to fruition in your life because of the World Wide Web?

LETTER 2 SOLUTIONS

1. At what age did you really begin to take your faith seriously and live it with personal intention? How did this more intentional walk with Jesus in your life come to be?

2. Recall a time in your life, if any, when living out your faith made you feel like an outcast or like you didn't belong. Share about that season or that time (perhaps you feel this way in the current season of your life). What did you learn from that incident or that time?

3. Have you ever fallen prey to the lie that walking with the Lord in faith is a burden, an inconvenience, or an annoying obligation?

4. Why do you think the devil hopes to distance us from God?

LETTER 3 LOOKING FOR THE KEYS

1. Throughout your life, have you felt as though you've had to earn love—either from those who raised you or from God? Have you struggled with any thoughts that other women are more easy to love than you are?

2. What are some of the things or places in your life that you have tried to find your identity in other than Christ?

3. What does it mean to you to be beloved by the God who created you?

4. Name a woman in your life who lives and operates as a woman who is at rest internally. What are some of the ways she lives that are inspiring to you?

LETTER 4 INSIDIOUS ROOTS

1. Is there a part of your heart that identifies with the lie that "you are what you do," a part of you that correlates your worth with your productivity? When did you begin to believe this?

2. Do you ever struggle to prioritize prayer because it doesn't feel "productive?"

3. What does your prayer life look like in your current season of life?

LETTER S TOP OF THE PODIUM

1. Have you felt throughout your life as though womanhood is a competition? Why or why not? If yes, can you pinpoint a time or memory in your life when you started believing this to be true?

2. Why do you think women often feel as though they need to compete with each other?

3. What is one of the most powerful memories you have of a time when you witnessed women lifting one another up or celebrating one another?

4. Recall a time when another woman encouraged you and celebrated you. How did that make you feel?

5. What steps do you take to avoid gossip in your life and respect the God-given dignity of the women around you?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 6 HAVE IT ALL

1. Do you feel dissatisfied with your life—either with the way it has gone so far or the way it is going now?

2. Do you feel that consuming media (social media, magazines, television shows) have caused any dissatisfaction within you about your own life—whether in your wardrobe, home/living space, lifestyle, finances, relationships, etc.?

3. Have you ever had a season in your life when you felt like you were constantly striving, grasping, and yearning for something else? How did that affect your heart and soul?

4. What are some ways our culture makes us believe that women can "have it all?"

5. Name some of the most beautiful blessings in your life today.

6. What can you do to reframe negative thoughts that stir up deep dissatisfaction within you and instead live in deep gratitude for what God has given you and what He is doing in your life today?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 7 TRUST IS A CURRENCY

1. If you use any form of social media at all, who do you follow, and what prompts you to follow them?

2. Do you ever feel uncomfortable with the deeply personal nature of what some people share about online? Why or why not?

3. What is the "currency of trust," and what role does it play in social media?

4. Is there anyone you follow on social media who impacts your life in a more negative than positive way?

5. What can living in a world where we often witness desperate grasping for followers teach us about the importance and beauty of Jesus having only 12?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 8 ALLERGIC TO DEPTH

1. In what ways did God design us for depth?

2. In what ways do you tend to distract yourself from deeper emotions or uncomfortable feelings?

3. Have there been times or seasons in your life where you can honestly say you spent it “running away?”

4. What is a skill in your life that really took you intentional, dedicated time to cultivate?

5. Are you a person who enjoys deep conversations? Why or why not? Who are some of the people in your life you are able to have your deepest, most meaningful conversations with?

6. How might God be calling you to grow more deeply in relationship with Him in this season of your life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 9 THE NEXT TIME IS NEVER DIFFERENT

1. How has our "culture of convenience" affected the way you operate, think, and make choices as a person?

2. We all choose different finite pleasures in hopes they will help us "get by" in the difficulties of life. In a spirit of vulnerability, what are some things you choose other than God that you hope will bring you a sense of fulfillment but never really do?

3. In what ways can you more consciously turn to the infinite love of God in life rather than the temporal satisfaction of finite things?

4. As a young girl/young woman, were you taught to view motherhood as a burden, as a joy, or something else?

5. If you are a mother, what parts of motherhood do you love the most? How have the sanctifying tasks of motherhood have helped you grow as a person?

LETTER 10 HOLD ON

1. Whether you are a mother or not, distraction can be the antithesis of presence for all of us. What are some of the distractions in your life that keep you from being present to others?

2. If you're being truly honest with yourself, do your devices get in the way of you connecting with the people closest to you?

3. Research has now shown that many people now spend an average of 5 hours a day on their phones. Have you ever felt guilty for the amount of time spent on your phone? If so, what changes did you make, if any?

4. If you are a mother, what message are you sending your children with the way you currently use your phone and computer, and the amount of time you do or do not spend using these devices?

LETTER 11 A SICK GAME OF TELEPHONE

1. When you were growing up, what was the messaging you received about what it was like to grow into womanhood? Were you guided by anyone in your life with honest conversations and helpful knowledge or left in confusion and/or fear?

2. If you have a daughter, or perhaps have a daughter one day in the future, would you approach this subject differently with her than you experienced in your own life?

3. In what ways can it be harmful for children to learn about their adolescent years, bodily changes, and sexuality from their peers?

4. What are some of your favorite things about being a woman?

LETTER 12 SPREAD LIKE WILDFIRE

1. What messaging did you receive about femininity as you grew up?

2. How has our culture played a part in the way you view womanhood and the role women play in God's design for the world?

3. Have you ever felt pressure or a need to "prove yourself" in a certain atmosphere, community, or place because you are a woman?

4. What are some of the most powerful, beautiful qualities God gave you uniquely as a woman?

LETTER 13 TAKE IT AND RUN WITH IT

1. As a little girl, did you feel as though the people who raised you were attuned and responsive to your feelings and emotions or dismissive about them?

2. Is there one word, phrase, or sentence someone said to you once in the past that has stuck with you up until this day? In a spirit of vulnerability, what did they say and how has it affected you?

3. When have you let someone's negative opinion of you change how you view yourself? How does that compare to how God views you as His child?

4. In what ways is it beneficial to feel deeply as a woman?

5. Name a woman you admire whose deep sense of feeling about a subject, a group of people, a movement, etc. propelled her to make a great difference in her family, community, or the world.

LETTER 14 INSIDE THE HAMPTONS

1. Do you remember the day or time in your life when you first signed up for any type of "social media?" What perception did you have of it back then?

2. How has your perception or use of social media changed since the day you first began using it?

3. In what ways can social media be like a prison for people?

4. In what ways does "newness" drive today's culture, especially in all forms of media?

5. Have you ever taken a social media break? If so, describe your experience. What happened in your heart and mind during that time? Did you return to social media? Why or why not?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 15 GRAINY SUNSETS

1. How do you feel our culture of self-centeredness has affected your own heart and mind?

2. In what ways does social media promote self-centeredness?

3. How much of your life do you choose to share online, if any? How have you discerned this?

4. Are you a person who experiences the “fear of missing out” in any part of life?

5. Name one positive way social media has impacted your life.

LETTER 16 BOXES TO CHECK

1. Have you ever fallen into the trap of believing that faith is a matter of "checking the right boxes" or "doing the right things" in order to be faithful or holy?

2. Has comparison against the faith lives of other women been a source of struggle on your faith journey? How have you learned to combat comparison and focus more fully on your own journey with Jesus?

3. What are some of your favorite ways to pray and devote yourself to time spent in relationship with God?

4. What is your favorite thing about being a follower of Jesus? Name as many things as you wish to.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 17 THE THINGS HE DIDN'T DO

1. Whether you are married or not, it can be very easy to focus on the shortcomings of people we love rather than their strengths. Are you someone who easily sees the best in people or struggles to do so?

2. How can comparing your friendships, relationships, or marriage with those of others affect the way you view your friendships, relationships, or marriage?

3. If you are familiar with the 5 Love Languages, what is the language you most readily are able to "speak" or "give" to others? What love language "spoken" or "given" to you makes you feel most deeply loved?

4. If you are married, name one of the greatest strengths of who your husband is or something you truly admire about him as a person.

5. If you are married, how do you protect your marriage from envy and discontent?

LETTER 18 DIFFERENT NOW

1. Has the enemy ever used that lie against you that you are "so much harder to love" than you were at a previous point in your life? What changes have happened in your life or within your heart that have caused you to believe this?

2. What role has insecurity played in your life? Have there been deep insecurities you have faced that you have overcome?

3. In what ways have you grown and matured over the last several years? What are some of the most important lessons you have learned in that time? How do you celebrate that growth?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 19 HER LADDER NEXT TO MINE

1. Do you feel like this "facade" of ladders in life has been a lie of the enemy that you have fallen for? How has comparison to other women's timelines in life affected you, if at all?

2. Has your belief in God's love for you ever been affected by the ways you see him at work in other women's lives?

3. How has God been present to you, either in big ways or small ways, in the unfolding of His unique plan for you? How has He shown you His face in the highs and lows, the hills and the valleys of your unique story?

LETTER 20 RED RIDING HOOD

1. Have you ever fallen prey to the lie that other women have a more important purpose in life than you?

2. What is humility, and why is it important?

3. Who is one person in your life who lives out that line…"Our Enemy's greatest disciples are the ones who serve without concern over who's watching or listening or paying any attention at all?"

4. What are the unique gifts God has given you to share with the world? How has He called you specifically to be His hands and feet in this life?

LETTER 21 THE BAKING RECIPE

1. What has your experience of "women's ministry" been like in your life, if any? Have you had positive experiences, negative experiences, or both? If you've had positive experiences, share about them. If you've had painful experiences, share about them, too.

2. Recall and share about a time in your life when you saw and experienced women thriving together in community.

3. What, in your opinion, is the most important ingredient in women's ministry to help any ministry or outreach thrive and stay rooted in the heart of Christ?

LETTER 22 CONVINCED BY CHARISMA

1. What are some of the ways the enemy has specifically worked in your heart and life to move you away from God?

2. What does the virtue of hope mean to you? What role has hope played in your life and in your story?

3. Has there been a time in your life when you placed your hope in a person and were deeply disappointed?

4. Why is it vitally important to be careful about placing our trust in a person rather than God?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 23 IT'S ALL UP TO YOU

1. Has there ever been a time in your life when you tried to be your own savior, trying to muscle through on your own strength rather than depending on God's help to carry you?

2. How does the enemy use the night's quiet and darkness to affect your thoughts and even affect your sleep?

3. Have there been decisions you've made in your life out of fear? What were those decisions and what did you learn from that experience?

4. If you are a mother, do you often receive the "just you wait" messaging, the message that things will only get harder and you should look forward to the years with fear and dread rather than joy and hope?

5. In what ways does a mother's role evolve as her child grows?

LETTER 24 WHISPERED WITH GUSTO

1. Has the enemy ever used the lie that you're a failure against you in your life? Perhaps it is in relationships, in a dream you had to let die, an unmet achievement or expectation, or some other area in your life?

2. How do you feel about unsolicited advice? Would you say you are a person who can easily let unsolicited advice roll off your back, or a person who can be easily affected or impacted by the unsolicited advice of others?

3. If you are a mother, do you ever struggle under the weight of the lie that you are just not cut out for this role in a way you feel other mothers are? How does that lie affect your heart and mind?

LETTER 25 FIELD OF DREAMS?

1. Has there ever been a situation you walked into where you were surprised by how divided people were? Perhaps it was in school, in the workplace, or even in family. How did the division you came upon make you feel?

2. When have you felt as though you have taken a stance or chosen a way of life that is frowned upon by others? How did you handle their opinions?

3. Has there ever been a time when you felt like you were "stuck" with a certain group and couldn't change your mind?

4. What do you think our world would look like if mothers were more united with one another?

5. If you are a mother, what "camps" have you found yourself in? Have you ever felt judged by others in your motherhood who may be in different "camps?"

LETTER 26 DEATH BY A THOUSAND QUIZZES

1. What was your experience of education like as a young girl/young woman? How did your educational journey impact who you are or what you believe today?

2. Did you feel like you had good and necessary space in your life growing up to cultivate the gifts of your heart?

3. If you could think or dream up any class young girls and young women could take in school when they were growing up, what class would that be? What would students do and what would it look like?

4. How has God been present to you throughout your educational journey as a woman?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 27 THE TWO R'S

1. What was the value placed on your report card as a child? Did you feel any pressure to get good grades as you grew up?

2. Have you felt any pressure throughout your life to "make something of yourself?" How was that messaging imparted upon you? Was there any pressure placed on you, either internally or externally, to have an impressive resume?

3. In what ways have cultural or familial expectations shaped the choices you've made as an adult?

4. Have you made choices in your life out of trust and obedience to God that other people found foolish or ridiculous? How did you find the courage to respond to His call?

5. What does it mean to you that Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life?

LETTER 28 THE BUS RIDE

1. Did you receive the message as a young girl growing up that your exterior was the most important thing about you? If yes, where did this messaging come from? If not, what do you think contributed to this in your life?

2. How have you struggled to combat the lie from the enemy that your exterior is where your beauty lies?

3. Has there ever been a comment like this one that someone said to your face or about you that impacted you deeply? What was that comment and how did it affect your heart and life?

4. How have you come to embrace and celebrate the way God crafted you uniquely in His image and likeness?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 29 THE CARROT AND THE MIRROR

1. What role has the term "body image" played in your life? How has the way God crafted your unique physical body impacted you as a woman?

2. What messaging have you received from the media throughout your life about what your body "should" look like or what the "ideal" body is? Where did this messaging come from?

3. How has your faith played a role in the way you view your body?

4. What does it look like for you to believe, know, and live in a way that reflects the fact that you are made in the image and likeness of the Creator?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 30 YOU'LL NEVER GET IT BACK (THEY STOLE IT ALL)

1. Many of us have gone through times, seasons, or events that caused our bodies to physically change. Has there been a time, event, or perhaps an illness in your life that affected your body physically that you struggled (or are still struggling) to accept?

2. Have you ever experienced hyperfixation on the physical appearance of other women and the way you felt you "measured up" to them? How did that affect you?

3. Has there ever been a time in your life when you underwent a change, made a big life choice, or began a new season of life and the enemy tried to get you to focus on "all you lost" instead of "all you gained?"

4. If you are a mother, how did you feel about the changes your body experienced after having a child? How can you more fully and freely celebrate what God has done in and through you?

LETTER 31 UNTIL YOU'RE DEAD

1. Do you feel as though the culture's messaging about aging as a woman has affected you in any way? If yes, in what ways?

2. In what ways have you changed outwardly as you've grown older? In what ways have you changed inwardly?

3. What do you look forward to about getting older?

4. Who is the wisest woman you know?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 32 OPENING NIGHT AT THE GALLERY

1. What are some “labels” you have used to define or describe yourself in your life?

2. Why do you think we often try to fit ourselves into categories or categorize others?

3. What is one word that someone has used to describe you that meant a lot to you?

4. How can you more fully turn to God in prayer to have him help you understand why He made you the way He did?

LETTER 33 HIDE AWAY

1. How has the message that you have to "prove" something as a person in this world been prevalent in your life, if at all?

2. What is the one lie in the list of "You must prove" statements that resonates with your life experience the most deeply? Why?

3. Have you struggled to combat any of the lies in the "All that you are" list of statements?

4. What is one lie in your life you believed that God has really healed and set you free from?

LETTER 34 WALK RIGHT OUT

1. What is shame?

2. Why do you think we often try to hide when we feel shame?

3. Are there any statements in the "list of remedial statements" in this letter that the enemy has used to cultivate shame in your life?

4. Do you find it difficult to be vulnerable with Jesus? If yes, why do you think this might be? If not, how have you found the freedom to be vulnerable in your relationship with Him?

5. In what ways does our relationship with God redeem our shame?

6. In a spirit of vulnerability, share about a time when you pushed back against the shame the enemy had cultivated in your life and walked out of the "house of shame" the enemy tried to keep you in, into the light of Christ's love.

LETTER 35 UNFAVORABLE HOOPS

1. What has your experience of friendship been like as a woman throughout your life? Why do you think friendship can be such a deep struggle for women?

2. Recall a time in your life when you suffered a painful situation in friendship, or even had to part ways with a person who was once a close friend. What did you learn from that time?

3. Has loneliness been a struggle for you in life? How so?

4. How has God been present to you in times of loneliness throughout the years?

5. Name one friend of any age in your life who has edified you, strengthened you, and walked with you on the journey of life.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 36 THE LOUD DRIVE HOME

1. Has your vulnerability with others ever been used against you in a way that caused you to close off from others because of the pain you experienced?

2. Recall a time when you chose to be vulnerable and the enemy's lies caused you regret or panic that you chose to be so open with your heart.

3. Recall a time when you stepped out in vulnerability and were so glad you chose to do so.

4. What does it mean to you to be fully known by God?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 37 NEVER STOP TALKING

1. When you have questions about life or how you should live, who do you consult first?

2. Who are the main people or forces in your life that have affected the way you make choices and the path you've taken in life?

3. What does it look like to turn to God for guidance? How might you be able to better do this in your day-to-day life?

4. Name a person in your life who has positively impacted the way you live and the choices you make in a profound way.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 38 I LOST MY CUP

1. Do you ever feel like life is a constant stream of activities and commitments and you are just constantly waiting for everything to "slow down?"

2. In what ways has motherhood today become more complicated than in years past?

3. How does constant electronic connectivity and the ability for people to reach you at all times affect you?

4. Do you remember when cell phones were invented? What were your first experiences of cell phones like?

5. What fills your "cup" in life? What helps your cup to feel full so you are able to pour out and love others in the ways God calls you to?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 39 ARE YOU DONE YET?

1. In this season of your life, do you feel stressed or surrendered? Why?

2. Share about a time in your life when God invited you to surrender and you were afraid to say yes to His invitation.

3. Share about a time in your life when you said yes to God and the result of your surrender was far better than you could ever have hoped or dreamed it would be.

4. How can you surrender more fully to Jesus in your daily life today, trusting more deeply in His Word, who He is as Savior, and His love for you?

LETTER 40 PLEASE

1. Would you describe yourself as a people-pleaser? Why or why not? Do you feel pressure to please everyone?

2. Have you ever been overwhelmed by the amount of good things people have asked you to take on?

3. Share about a time in your life where you felt overextended and overcommitted and needed to prayerfully decide to let some commitments go.

4. What tools or methods of discernment do you use to help you prayerfully decide if you should agree to do something that is asked of you?

LETTER 41 THE EMPTY THEATER

1. Do you struggle with forgiving yourself or struggle with being unnecessarily hard on yourself? If so, why do you think this might be?

2. Why do you think we can be so much harder on ourselves than we are on others?

3. Is it hard for you not to dwell on the "could have, would have, should have?" How might God be inviting you to let some things go so you can focus on His glory in the present day?

4. Is there something in your life you've been holding onto that you know you need to let go of—you know you need to forgive yourself for—or you know you need to make a conscious effort to move on from?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

LETTER 42 PARTING WAYS

1. What are some ways you can make changes in your life so that the enemy's lies have less of an effect on your heart, mind, and soul?

2. Why do you think it's important to be aware of the enemy's methods of attack on your faith?

3. What helps you stay firm in your faith when the enemy attacks you?

4. Who in your community can help you grow in your faith and your journey with the Lord?

FAREWELL

1. Did you gain any insight about the ways the enemy has worked in your own heart and life while reading this book? If so, please share what you learned.

2. What letter in the book resonated in your heart the most?

3. What letter in this book brought you a sense of understanding about a struggle women around you face that you may not have necessarily battled in your own life?

4. Are there any changes you want to make in your life after reading?

5. Which letter gave you insight you didn't previously have into the ways the enemy works in the modern experience of femininity and womanhood?

6. In what ways have you found freedom in God?

7. Who is one woman in your life who may benefit from reading this book?

RECIPES

Time together is sweet, time together with dessert is even sweeter!

CHURRO ALMONDS

By Lauren Miyashiro on delish.com

Yields: 1	Prep Time: 10 mins	Cook Time: 10 mins	Total Time: 20 mins

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups almonds
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 Tbsp. cinnamon
- pinch of salt
- 1/3 cup water
- melted white chocolate

DIRECTIONS

STEP 1

Combine sugars, cinnamon, salt and water in a large skillet over medium heat. When the sugar has dissolved, stir in the almonds. Stir constantly until the almonds are completely coated and the sugar crystallizes, about 8-10 minutes. The mixture should be dry.

STEP 2

Remove from heat and transfer almonds to parchment paper to cool. Drizzle with melted white chocolate. Let set for 10 minutes. Serve at room temperature.
